ALL MANUSCRIPTS MUST BE SUBMITTED IN APA 6TH EDITION CITATION STYLE

Armed Forces & Society has completed its transition to APA 6th Edition citation style. We apologize for any inconvenience, however we believe this will dramatically improve the impact of our author's articles. You may find our modified APA guidelines below:

Manuscript Guidelines

Manuscripts should be submitted electronically to <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/afs> where authors will be required to set up an online account on the SageTrack system powered by ScholarOne. Submission of a manuscript implies a commitment by the author to publish in the journal, if the manuscript is accepted; authors must certify that the manuscript is not currently under consideration by any other journal.

Ordinarily, manuscripts should not exceed 26 pages and 8,000 words, including tables, figures, and references. Manuscripts received which are significantly higher than the limit will be automatically rejected. Manuscripts are subjected to blind peer review and thus it should be anonymized. The author's names and self-citations should be removed or blacked out. Any other identification, including any references in the manuscript, the notes, the title, and reference sections should be removed from the paper and listed on separate pages, e.g., title page.

- Author(s) Biography (no more than 50 words)
  - Each author's complete name and institutional affiliation(s)
  - Acknowledgments and credits
  - Grant numbers and/or funding information of Corresponding author (name, address, phone/fax, e-mail)
  - Manuscript
    - Pg 1 contents:
      - Title
      - Abstract
    - Text (should begin on new page)
    - Tables (should begin on new page)
      - Tables should be structured according to APA Guidelines. Each table must have a clear and concise title.
      - When appropriate, use the title to explain an abbreviation parenthetically. Eg. Comparison of Median Income of Adopted Children (AC) v. Foster Children (FC).
    - Figures. (should begin on new page)
      - Figures should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they appear in the text and must include figure captions.
      - Figures will appear in the published article in the order in which they are numbered initially.
      - The figure resolution should be 300dpi at the time of submission.
    - References (should begin on new page)
    - End Notes (should begin on new page)
    - Appendices
      - Appendices which may be referenced in the manuscript, should appear in a separate document unless they are intended to be published with the article, if it is accepted. Otherwise, appendices shall be published online as a supplement to the article.
      - Appendices should be lettered to distinguish from numbered tables and figures. Include a descriptive title for each appendix (e.g., "Appendix A. Variable Names and Definitions"). Cross-check text for accuracy against appendices immediately follows after.

Fifth level headings, sentences that begin a paragraph and end with a period. The text then immediately follows after.

Citations

In Text Citations

For each text citation there must be a corresponding citation in the reference list and for each reference list citation there must be a corresponding text citation. Each corresponding citation must have identical spelling and year. Each text citation must include at least two pieces of information, author(s) and year of publication.

End Notes

If explanatory endnotes are required for your manuscript, please use Microsoft Word's Insert Footnote feature under the Reference ribbon.. The Footnotes should be added at the bottom of the page after the references. The word "Notes" should be centered at the top of the page.

References

Basic rules for the reference list:

- The reference list should be arranged in alphabetical order according to the authors' last names;
- If there is more than one work by the same author, order them according to their publication date – oldest to newest (therefore a 2008 publication would appear before a 2009 publication);
- When listing multiple authors of a source use "&" instead of "and";
- Capitalize only the first word of the title and of the subtitle, if there are one, and any proper names – i. e. only those words that are normally capitalized;
- Italicize the title of the book, the title of the journal/serial and the title of the web document;
- Manuscripts submitted to Armed Forces & Society (AF&S) should strictly follow the APA manual (6th edition);
- Every in-text citation must have the detailed reference in the Reference section;
- Every reference listed in the Reference section must be cited in text;
- Do not use "et al." in the Reference list at the end; names of all authors of a publication should be listed there.

Examples Of Commonly Found References

For more examples please check APA (6th ed).

Periodicals. Note that all periodicals must include a DOI if they are not yet assigned to an issue.

Editor's Note

To encourage a faster production process of your article, it is advised that you closely adhere to the points above for references. Otherwise, it will entail a long process of solving copyeditor's queries and may directly affect the publication time of your article. In case of any question, please contact the journal's editorial assistant at afsjournal@txstate.edu.

Copyrighted Materials

Author(s) are responsible for securing permission to reproduce all copyrighted figures or materials before they are published in (AF&S). A copy of the written permission must be included with the manuscript submission.
